1.0 INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the Maasai Mara University library. The purpose of this guide is to enable you to locate and use Library materials effectively. Our Library contains vast volumes of academic works, reference, general works, literature, fiction, instructional materials and other useful items for class and research purposes. In addition, we provide many resources online, including e-books, databases with magazine and journal articles, and interactive learning tools such as videos. The Library is committed to provide world-class client-centered information resources and services to our users. This Handbook will help you to acquaint with our services and also to explore the wealth of materials available in the Library and beyond. If you need assistance, experienced professional librarians are always available to attend to your various needs.

1.1 Our Vision

To be the leading library providing a world class information service.

1.2 Our Mission

To provide an efficient and effective customer driven library service in support of teaching, research, consultancy and extension.

1.3 Our Motto

Quality information service is our goal

1.4 Our objectives

- i. To ensure fair and equitable access and use of library services by all library users;
- ii. To ensure that the library staff maintain high standard of professional-ism in provision of library and information services;
- iii. To equip library users with information literacy skills;

iv. To develop and secure high-quality, relevant, and balanced collections, that support and strengthen teaching, research and consultancy.

v. Expanding access to works by staff in order to demonstrate the scientific, societal, and economic relevance of the University's research activities by developing a digital repository.

4.0 LIBRARY SERVICES

4.1 Ask a Librarian

Ask a Librarian service is being established as a pathway to obtaining professional guidance and recommendations regarding your research. You will receive a detailed response with specific referrals to appropriate resources and research techniques.

4.2 Digital library

A digital library is a library in which a significant proportion of the resources are available in electronic format (as opposed to print or microform), accessible by means of computers. The digital content may be locally held or accessed remotely via computer networks. Digital libraries provide students with unlimited resources of knowledge extending and enhancing the physical library of a University. Plans are underway to have off-campus access.

4.3 Suggestion book

The Library welcomes any suggestions that help to improve Library services. Users may submit their constructive ideas via library email or the complaint register.

4.4 Borrowing Privilege

Students and staff of the University can use the University ID cards to enter the Maasai Mara University library. University ID cards and Library fines are not transferable.

Discharge

Library users can return their loan items to the Circulation Counter. Loan records of the library materials returned will be updated immediately.

4.5 Overdue and Losses

Borrowers are responsible for returning their loans on or before the due date. Late return of Library materials is subject to an overdue fine and the amount of which is specified in the Library Regulations. For lost or damaged items, borrowers are liable for the cost of replacement plus the shipping and/ or processing fees

4.6 Information literacy

The Library provides users with education programmes and training workshops to assist users in using the Library effectively. Library orientation programmes for new students and staff are scheduled at the beginning of an academic year. Training workshops on using resources of different subject areas are held from time to time. Library will also coordinate with Schools to customize training programmes related to the needs of their courses.

4.7 Wireless LAN

The wireless network is accessible in all public areas in the Library. Users are required to configure and authenticate their devices once and all future logins will be authenticated automatically.

5.0 CONDUCT OF THE LIBRARY USERS

Library users should observe the rules of conduct listed here.

Offenders may be liable to disciplinary action as per the library policy, and/or be excluded from the Library.

5.1 Silence

Silence must be observed in the Library to maintain a quiet study atmosphere. All discussions are to be conducted in designated areas or OUT-SIDE the Library Building.

5.2 Mobile Phones

Use of mobile phones is prohibited. Library users should switch the devices to silent mode before entering the Library.

5.3 Seating

Library seats cannot be reserved. Please vacate your seat if it is no longer required. Any person can occupy any seat when nobody is sitting on it. Reading materials should not be left unattended.

5.4 Food & Drink

Food and drinks including water are not allowed in the Library.

5.5 Personal Belongings

Personal belongings should not be left unattended. The Library will not be responsible for any loss or damage of personal belongings.

5.6 Copyright

Copyright law should be strictly observed by all users when reproducing Library materials, whether by photocopying or by electronic means. Users are fully responsible for any legal consequences arising from infringement of applicable copyright laws.

5.7 Computer Equipment

Library computer equipment is intended for library research and should not be used for games, chat programs, or similar applications. Users should not use public Library computers to display materials that might be defined as harassing or obscene.

5.8 Admission

Admission to the Library is conditional upon the presentation of a valid University Identity Card. These cards are not transferable. In addition, the University Librarian or his/her designated representative shall have the authority to request a user to produce his/her University Identity Card for identification.

5.9 Loss and damage of library materials

Borrowers shall be held responsible for any loss, mutilation, damage or disfigurement by writing or other marks and shall be required to pay the full cost of replacing or repairing such materials. In order to stop overdue fines from accruing, these cases should be reported to the University Librarian without delay. The cost of replacement will be the estimated price of the material plus a service charge per item as determined by the University Librarian. The book replacement cost may be waived if the lost item is found and returned. However, the overdue fine calculable from the due date to the date the item is actually returned still has to be settled. Lost library books or materials will continue to remain the property of the Library even if replacement costs have been paid. All sums paid are non-refundable.
