SUBJECT: STUDENT RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE DATA PROTECTION ACT, 2019 (KENYA)

The Office of the Registrar (Academic Affairs) wishes to inform all students that we have received official communication regarding your rights and obligations under the Data Protection Act, 2019 of Kenya.

The Act outlines important provisions that safeguard your personal data and guide how institutions, including the University, may collect, store, use, and share such data. These include, but are not limited to:

1. Your Rights as a Data Subject: The right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data, the right to access your personal data held by the University the right to request correction or deletion of inaccurate or unnecessary data the right to object to certain types of data processing and the right to data portability.
2. Your Obligations: To provide accurate and truthful information to the University, to respect the privacy of fellow students and staff and to use University systems and platforms responsibly and in accordance with data protection guidelines.

Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Data Protection Act, 2019 to ensure full compliance and to understand how you data is protected. For detailed information, please refer to the attached guidelines provided.
